

Section 4(1)(b)(i) of RTI Act , 2005

The particulars of its organization, functions and duties

Centre for Smart governance (CSG) has a well-defined organization structure with Director General as head of the organization supported by Executive Director, Directors, Project Managers, Technical resources, Consultants, etc. to run the society efficiently and in accordance with the provisions of the MoA, Rules and Regulations of the Society.

Centre for Smart Governance (CSG) shall take up activities such as development of software application and associated activities for various e-Governance projects in the state and all other allied and ancillary services like change management, requirement gathering, capacity building. Preparation of software Requirement Specifications etc. to various Government Department, Corporations, Boards, Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) autonomous institutions, organizations established under State and Central Acts.
